

Auberon Matthew Hilton

An elegant dining table that has a top with fold-down flaps on either side. Originally created in 1991, this design takes inspiration from Shaker furniture. The tabletop has boat-like curves on either side, while each leg slightly splays outwards. A certain slimness, fine details and high-quality wood workmanship give Auberon a strong visual stature. It is available in walnut or oak.

Made in the EU.

Auberon
Matthew Hilton

1 Table