EUSTON — RODOLFO DORDONI 2018

2

A new collection of poufs with a simple but sophisticated design. Two different and complementary versions, both featuring generous and rigorous geometric shapes, enriched by the elegant backstitched seat. A raised version in which the seat is supported by a pewter-finish metallic base. Or the more reassuring geometry of the floor version, embellished by an almost invisible pewter-finish metal frame. Two different dimensions for both the designs, to meet the multiple requirements of contemporary furnishing.
