FORTEPIANO— RODOLFO DORDONI 2011

10

A system based on only three fundamental elements that can be freely combined together: floor or suspended storage units, modular shelves and display shelves. These simple ingredients enable the creation of infinite new solutions that are quick and fun to customize also thanks to a wide range of finishes: lacquers, wood and glass in various colours. A system that places utmost importance on flexibility while never sacrificing function and storage space. An innovative system suitable for contemporary living that offers certain solutions for manifold living needs. Fortepiano is a patented model.
